PROGRAM INFORMATION

OLD JOE HOMESTEAD

Come join us as we step into the past and experience 19th Century farm life.

In 1871, Joe E. Wilshire ("Old Joe") purchased hundreds of acres of Oak Glen farmland for a saddle, a jug of whiskey, and a chicken. Your students and friends might be surprised to know that much of that farm land is still, well...farmland!

In this tour, students explore the crafts and skills of a homestead farm family. Spend a few hours experiencing life before the era of traffic jams, learning the simple home arts of 19th century farm life.

Hay Ride

Hop onto a hay-filled trailer towed by one of the antique tractors for a fun filled ride around the farm.

Farming

"He who does not work, does not eat." That is especially true when talking of farming, so let's get plowing"

Cabin Life

Homestead chores were equal parts tough and rewarding, help at the cabin by beating the rugs, running our the laundry line, and sundry other duties.

Animals

Head over to the animal pens for a bit of feeding and herding. Animals are very important on the farm, and need lots of special attention.

Games

Take a break when the chores are done and play some fun games like climbing Bear and Hoop and Stick.
