PROGRAM INFORMATION

Lyle the Crocodile

Directed by Teri Weisenberg Ang
Adapted for the Stage by Kevin Kling
Based on the Books by Bernard Waber
Music by Michael Koerner

When the Primms moves to the Upper East Side of New York City, they discover a surprise in their new home. There in the tub of their upstairs bathroom is a crocodile! The good news, however, is that he's very friendly. Called Lyle, the croc becomes the family pet. Lyle also gains the trust and friendship of most of the neighbors. But slow to join those ranks is Mr. Grumps; he hates just about everything. It isn't until Mr. Grumps and his cat are victims of a fire and rescued by Lyle when the curmudgeon changes his mind about the Primm's reptilian family member. It's not all smooth-sailing for the Primms and Lyle, though. When Lyle's original owner, Hector P. Valenti, decides to reclaim his croc, the family and Lyle are heartbroken. In the end, fortunately, Valenti is persuaded that Lyle belongs with the Primms.
