PROGRAM INFORMATION

Quality West Wing Oval Office Tour

During the Oval Office tour, students will be given the opportunity to experience hands-on learning including:

- A film describing the obstacles our founding fathers over came in establishing our government.
- Tests and puzzles to challenge student's knowledge of our government and its structure.
- Biographies describing the lives of famous Presidents.
- A detailed scale model of Capitol Hill including our famous monuments.
- Detailed replicas depicting the interiors and the House, Senate, and Supreme Court buildings in session.
- The Oval Office - the highlight of the tour.
- An interactive computer program that simulates a day in the life of the President of the United States. In this program a student can write a bill, balance the budget, nominate judges for the Supreme Court, do a press conference as well as learn about other important events that occurred during other presidential administrations.

It is like having Washington D.C. right in your own back yard!
