In this charming musical adaptation of the award-winning book by Leo Lionni, all the mice are busy gathering supplies and getting ready for winter, except for Frederick, who seems to have his head in the clouds. But when winter comes, it's Frederick's collection of memories about the colors and beauty of nature that sustain his friends through the dark days. The foot-tapping country and folk-infused score only adds to the fun, making this show a perfect introduction to musical theatre for our youngest audiences.
